Let Lattimore
Get Out Of U. S.

BALTIMORE — (AP)—The Baltimore district office of the customs service received instructions June 12 from Washington directing that Owen Lattimore not be permitted to leave the country. J. Eugene Kennedy, assistant collector of customs for the district, said today the order was relayed to customs officials at ports of embarkation in the district—Baltimore, Washington National Airport and the Naval Air Station at Patuxent, Md. The Baltimore Sun earlier had gotten confirmation of the state department order from customs officials in New York. Asked about it, the department declined to give a yes-or-no answer but said Lattimore had not applied for a passport. Lattimore himself told an Associated Press reporter he did not know "what the whole story is all about." He is a professor at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore and was the central figure in a months-long Senate investigation of the Institute of Pacific Relations of which he was a trustee. Lattimore denied repeatedly that he was a Communist or had any Communist connections. The investigation, by the Internal Security (McCarran) Subcommittee, was aimed at learning whether IPR exerted any subversive influences over State Department Far Eastern policy. Lattimore has been the target of a number of attacks by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), who has said he is a Soviet spy and the "chief

RESCUED FROM POLE—Flag pole painter David Kerr hung upside down from the top of a 110-foot flag pole for almost a half an hour in Everett, Wash. Kerr was painting the pole when he slipped from his bosun's seat, catching his left leg in the safety rope. He hung head down until a utility district lineman, Bert Justice succeeded in getting him down. Left: Justice works his way up pole to Kerr. Sweden Studies Note
Charging Violation
Of Russian Frontier

STOCKHOLM, Sweden.—(AP)—The Swedish cabinet met today to study the latest Russian blast in the flurry of angry notes exchanged between the two nations following the shooting down of a Swedish flying boat by Soviet jet fighters. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky handed the Russian message to Swedish Ambassador Rolf Sohlman last night in Moscow.

It emphatically denied the Swedish version of the shooting incident, which has aroused a storm of anti-Russian emotion in this traditionally neutral country, and demanded an end to alleged Swedish violations of Soviet frontiers. The ill-fated plane—a Catalina rescue craft with seven men aboard—was downed Monday in the Baltic Sea. All the crewmen were picked up by a German freighter. The Swedes immediately protested to Moscow, claiming that the Catalina had been unarmed and had kept at least 15 miles from Soviet territory. The Russians claim their territorial waters extend 12 nautical miles from shore. The Russians countercharged on Tuesday that the plane had flown over Soviet boundaries and had begun the shooting which resulted in its being downed. The Swedes angrily rejected these charges Wednesday and repeated their claims that the plane had been unarmed and over international waters. The search continued for a Swedish transport plane missing since June 13 and also feared lost to Soviet attack. The Catalina had been aiding in the hunt for this plane when it was shot down. The search would continue until some trace of the plane was found, the Navy declared. The Swedish defense staff also announced pointedly that its navy and air force operations would continue in Swedish and International waters "without restrictions."

Cleanup Begun
By McGranery

By JACK RUTLEDGE
WASHINGTON — (AP)—Attorney General McGranery says the firing of the U. S. district attorney for Kansas is just one step in a methodical housecleaning the Justice Department is conducting "in our own quiet little way." McGranery, in office only three weeks, announced yesterday that Federal Prosecutor Lester Luther, 63, had been dismissed by President Truman at his request because of evidence the Kansas accepted a $2,000 cut of a $5,000 fee in a pending tax dispute case. Seated at his desk, fingering a file of photostatic copies of cancelled checks and documents, McGranery told newsmen if he finds evidence of any other misconduct he will let the public know about it immediately. "It will be put right on top of the table," said the new attorney general, who has been given the role of government cleanup chief. "In our own quiet little way, that is how we are going to clean this thing up."

DETROIT — (AP)—Two ministers' sons were among 13 youths recommended today to the Detroit Methodist conference as candidates for the ministry. Recommended for admission as candidates on trial were William Ethan Bray, son of the Rev. Ethan Bray of Saginaw, and Eric Saxwold Hammar, son of the Rev. Karl J. Hammar, Upper Peninsula minister.

Temperature Near Freezing In Cadillac

(By The Associated Press)
The nation's weather showed little change today, continuing warm and humid over most of the southern half of the country. The spell of hot weather in the eastern states ended yesterday with arrival of a cool front that covered most of the northern tier of states from the Rockies eastward. Thunderstorms with wind gusts up to 70 miles an hour hit New York City and other eastern cities. It was near freezing early today in Cadillac, Mich., with a low of 36.

Summer To Arrive
Saturday Morning

NEW YORK — (AP)—Summer will begin officially tomorrow at 6:13 a. m. (EST). Tomorrow marks the arrival of the summer solstice, when the sun rises farthest north of east, reaches its greatest noontime altitude, and set equally far north of west. Fireworks Seized KALAMAZOO.—(AP)—With the Fourth of July two weeks away, a fireworks case has come up here. Stanley Burr, owner of a service station, has admitted selling fireworks to a boy caught exploding them in the entrance to a downtown department store. He said he bought them in Ohio. His $100 stock of them was confiscated.

Taxes Provide Prime Grist For Political Mill

(By The Associated Press)
Taxes, about which every voter knows, were prime grist for the political mill today, with President Truman and the four top contenders for his job tossing in their views on the subject. Here's what they had to say: 1. President Truman—No president, Democrat or Republican, can cut taxes 15 per cent—in fact, they ought to go up instead of down because of the federal deficit. 2. Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio—"I promise a reduction in expenses to balance the budget the first year and a tax reduction of 15 percent the second year." 3. Gen. Dwight Eisenhower—he advocates a slash of 30 to 40 billion dollars in the federal budget—not in taxes, as he has been quoted as saying. 4. Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia—he believes the people are willing to make the present tax sacrifice to keep the nation strong. He doesn't see how taxes can be reduced without wrecking rearmament. 5. Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee—"let us win the peace first and then talk about cutting taxes." Any such talk now, he said, amounts to daydreaming, ignorance about fiscal matters or an empty promise to get votes. Taft and Eisenhower are one-two in the race for Republican presidential nomination. Kefauver and Russell occupy the same positions among Democrats. The third-running Democrat, mutual security administrator Axel H. Harrison, said in talks yesterday he could not see how either Kefauver or Russell, as Southerners, could win the big blocs of Democratic votes in the North and West. Eisenhower, he said, is a fine soldier and patriot but is a "captivity" of reactionary Republican ideas, and, he added, "I disagree with Taft on practically every issue, foreign and domestic." The Associated Press tabulation of pre-convention delegate strength for these five nominees: Republican—Taft 466, Eisenhower 393. Nomination at the July 7 convention requires 604 delegate votes. Democrat—Kefauver 246, Russell 114½, Harrison 91½. It takes 616 to win the nomination at the July 21 convention.

Government Scraps
Orders To Ease Up
Building Restrictions

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The government today scrapped its plan to relax building restrictions July 1. It said the steel strike is "slowly but surely" strangling military and civilian production. Henry H. Fowler, head of the national production administration conference the easing of curbs on home construction and on building of amusement and recreation sites must be postponed indefinitely. Philip Murray's CIO Steelworkers went on strike June 2 minutes after the U. S. supreme court had knocked out President Truman's seizure of the nation's steel mills. Fowler said defense industries are not getting enough steel even though all efforts have been directed at steering the trickle of available steel into military and defense-supporting production. Union leaders and officials of the steel companies agreed during conferences with John R. Steelman, acting mobilization chief, to make sure that steel needed for critical defense industries would be made available even though the union continued on strike. Details of the plan have not yet been worked out. The building relaxation would have lifted the ban on erection of new night clubs, bars, theaters, arenas, and other amusement and recreation places. It also would have permitted the use of 1,500 tons of structural steel, in any one home, and would have eased to a lesser extent restrictions on industrial building. However, Fowler said that relaxations involving only copper and aluminum, the other two allocated materials, would go forward despite the postponement of the steel relaxation. No decision has yet been made whether third-quarter allotments of steel already made for manufacturing use will be changed, Fowler said.

Germ War Talk
Is Hot Potato

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—Western diplomats expressed a belief today that Russia has found her germ warfare charges against the United States a hot potato and now wants to drop the whole thing. These views were voiced privately as the U. N. Security Council set more debate today on the germ warfare question. Western quarters said they had received information from usually reliable sources that the Russians are convinced they could never make out a plausible case on the basis of existing "evidence." The United States and other western powers have said repeatedly that the Communist charges are false and that the Red evidence is faked. Western diplomats said they had learned from private sources that the Russians recently sent representatives into North Korea to examine the so-called evidence and were so disappointed with the clumsiness of the North Koreans that they gave them a sharp dressing down. How true these reports were could not be ascertained. But they were being advanced by western circles as the reason that Soviet delegate Jacob A. Malik, at Wednesday's council meeting, did not mention the Communist charges of germ warfare against the U. S.

United States May Buy
Warplanes In Europe

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The United States announced today it is considering buying airplanes from European member nations of the North Atlantic treaty organization. The plan would involve use of U. S. mutual security funds to buy planes directly from European makers, chiefly for use by European nations — instead of sending aid in the form of U. S. planes. Ambassador William H. Draper, special representative in Europe, said the North Atlantic council has been requested to prepare recommendations for European production of war planes to help meet NATO requirements. That action, he said in a statement issued simultaneously here and in Paris, is based on a provision of the Mutual Security Act. He said the act left to the executive branch of government the decision on how best to utilize U. S. funds for procurement of military equipment in Europe "to the advantage of the mutual security program." Draper's announcement of the contemplated plan to buy planes in Europe comes at a time when budget reductions in the U. S. have brought about a slow-down in procurement of American made aircraft.

Foreign Aid Bill
Of $6,447,730,750
Signed By Truman

WASHINGTON — (AP)—President Truman today signed the $6,447,730,750 foreign aid bill. The amount is 18.6 per cent less than he had declared was the minimum necessary for next year. The cuts were imposed by a Congress which voiced support for the principle of foreign assistance but sharply criticized some aspects of the president's program. This measure merely authorizes the expenditure of $6,447,730,750—in effect setting that total as a ceiling for military and economic assistance during the fiscal year beginning July 1. The actual appropriations still have to be voted, with the possibility that the whole question of foreign aid may be debated again.

Fire Does Damage
At British Embassy

WASHINGTON — (AP)—A midnight fire at the British embassy threatened the main chancery, scorched an annex and did an estimated $10,000 damage before it was brought quickly under control. Sir Oliver Franks, the British ambassador, came into the chancery lobby wearing a topcoat over his pajamas to watch the blaze. He was joined by other embassy residents, none of whom were evacuated. The only injury was to a fireman whose hand was burned. Flames in the three-alarm fire, which brought out about a dozen pieces of equipment, shot 50 feet in the air. Sir Oliver ordered the embassy's roof sprinklers turned on to wet down the main building.

LANSING.—(AP)—A municipal court jury deliberated 25 minutes last night before convicting Rep. Glenn B. Robinson, chairman of the House Liquor Committee, of drunk driving. Judge Earl M. McDonald set June 28 for sentencing the South Haven Republican and continued his $100 bond. Lansing police arrested Robinson at 2:15 a. m. April 11 after his car struck a lamp post in the downtown section. He claimed he had had only four martinis, along with a big dinner, while spending the evening with fellow legislators. Former governor Kim Sigler, Robinson's attorney, said he would appeal the verdict to circuit court. He attempted to prove that police made a special effort to "get" the representative because he had voted against a bill to permit policemen to join the Fraternal Order of Police. Seven officers were called to the stand. All denied they were members of the FOP. Chairman George Burke of the Liquor Control Commission and Rep. Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield) and Earl Hebert (D-Ecorse) said they spent the evening with Robinson. They left him 15 minutes before he was arrested, they said, and he was not drunk.

Taft Scorns Me-Too
Campaign, Lambasts
New Dealers In GOP

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft blasted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on domestic and foreign issues last night, scored a "Me too" type of presidential campaign and lambasted "New Deal" Republicanism. In a nationally televised program, "Answer to Abilene," Taft spoke out on vital issues while taking verbal pot-shots at Eisenhower, his chief contender for the GOP Presidential nomination. Taft claimed he has gained in both popular and convention delegate strength since Eisenhower came home from Europe. Concerning delegates, he said: "I can't find a single one that Gen. Eisenhower's gained. Taft accused Eisenhower of being ill-informed on, not understanding, or shifting his views on several issues—particularly reduction of government expenditures. Taft first read from a prepared text in which he expounded his own views and decried "Me-tooism" in politics and "New Deal" Republicanism. It was during the question-and-answer part of the program that he blasted away at Eisenhower. Taft answered queries put by four newspaper reporters, several members of the studio audience, and a women's group known as "Belles for Bob." The Republican party, Taft said, cannot win by approving administration foreign policy "and merely promising that we can carry them

Traffic Dwindles
In Detroit River

DETROIT — (AP)—The Detroit River, normally the world's busiest waterway, is a pleasure boaters' paradise nowadays. The steel strike has cut freighter traffic on the river by 70 per cent, according to the estimate of J. W. Westcott who operates a marine parcel delivery and reporting service. Part of Westcott's job is to furnish the U. S. Department of Commerce with shipping figures. He said about 110 to 120 freighters pass through the Detroit River on a normal day. But now, said Westcott, the iron ore boats are tied up in ports along the Great Lakes. Five or six are moored in the Detroit River. Both Westcott and Herman Browning of the T. H. Browning Steamship Company agreed that the steel strike came too early to coincide with the grain season so there are few grain cargoes to take up the slack in freighter traffic. "The only thing left is a little coal and stone and the coal will stop very shortly," Westcott said. The T. J. McCarthy Steamship Co., which deals entirely in automobile shipping, has not yet been hit by the strike. But T. J. McCarthy, president of the line, said, "We're going to get it sooner or later as cars become scarce."

City Lots Sold; Fuel Purchased

Bids were accepted last night by Escanaba City Council for the sale of city-owned lots east of the Fair Grounds and for the purchase of coal, fuel oil and diesel oil supplies for the coming year.

Lots were sold to high bidders as follows:

Lot 21 of Block 1, to Louis and Rhoda Doucette, whose bid of $285 was high; lots 3 and 4 of Block 3, to Ray Cormier for $269, the only bid.

Lot 6 of Block 4 to Louis Nelson for $60; and Lot 5 of Block 4 to Ray Cormier for $350. Cormier had submitted one bid of $356 for both lots, but Council voted to accept $350 as a bid for Lot 5 and gave Cormier the opportunity to withdraw if he desired.

No bids were received on several lots on which St. Thomas Church had previously bid $100 below the minimum price. The manager was authorized to contact officials of the church and offer the property to them at the minimum price of $825, and if they are uninterested, to any other interested party.

Four thousand tons of coal for the city steam plant will be purchased from The Reiss Coal Company and Cleveland Cliffs Company. The purchase will be divided between the two local firms because of the closeness of the bids. Reiss bid $9.9065 and Cleveland Cliffs $9.87 per ton.

The Council accepted the bid of the Hansen & Jensen Oil company for the purchase by the city of 24,000 gallons of fuel oil at 14.9 cents per gallon, less one-half cent below the prevailing tank wagon price at time of delivery; and the bid of the Wadhams Oil Company to supply the city with 4,500 gallons of diesel oil at 14.8 cents per gallon. The bids were the lowest of three received.

Bids on supplying the city with 110 tons or less of domestic stoker coal were received and held over to the next meeting to give the manager an opportunity to analyze them. Bids were received from Phoenix Lumber and Supply, Coleman Nee, and Delta Coal & Dock Company.

1-A Selectees Can Enlist To June 30

Draft eligibles who have had their preinduction physical examinations were reminded today that they have until June 30 to enlist in the service branch of their choice.

The deadline of that date for accepting young men who are awaiting draft induction was cited by S/Sgt. John D'Antonio, recruiter in the Escanaba Army-Air Force recruiting station.

After deadline time, draft pre-inductees will not be able to take their preference of military branches but must wait for their induction call with their entry into the army almost a certainty, D'Antonio said.

The Navy recruiting headquarters in Escanaba is in the Federal Building. The nearest Marine Corps recruiting station is in Iron Mountain.

Speed Control Zoning Asked By City Council

In the interest of traffic safety on trunkline highways entering Escanaba, the City Council last night requested the state to conduct a survey and establish speed zones on Highways US-241 and M-35.

F. X. St. Peter Taken By Death

MENOMINEE—Francis Xavier St. Peter, 72, president of Carpenter Cook Company, died at 11:45 a. m. today at St. Joseph Lloyd Hospital in Menominee. He had been in ill health for the past month.

Mr. St. Peter was born in Templeton, Province of Quebec, Canada, on June 6, 1880, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael St. Peter. His birthplace was near the City of Hull, across the Ottawa River from Ottawa, Mich. His father moved to Iron Mountain, Mich., the same year and the family followed the next year.

On April 1, 1898 and a year out of business college, Mr. St. Peter went to work in the office of Carpenter Cook Company and 24 years later was president of the company when a corporation he organized acquired the business from the late Charles I. Cook. When he joined the company in 1898 it had only recently moved (from the Paalzow Building on 1st Street) to its new warehouse and offices on lower 1st Street near the swing bridge.

Starting as an office clerk, Mr. St. Peter later became office manager and manager of credit and finances, a post he held until he organized the corporation that purchased Mr. Cook's interests in 1922 when he became president and general manager. The new company was incorporated for $500,000.

Mr. St. Peter was one of the organizers in 1906 of the Commercial Bank of Menominee and a charter director. He was president of the bank from 1923 to 1937 when he became chairman of the board, a post he held at the time of his death. He was president and a director of the Twin City Packing Company and was instrumental in the sale on Feb. 14, 1948 of the firm to the Plankinton Packing Company, subsidiary of Swift & Company. Mr. St. Peter was also a director of the Ann Arbor Railroad.

Only elective office he ever held was as a member of the Menominee Board of Education and during his service the John N. Davis Junior High School was built. He was chairman of the Menominee County Draft Board at the start of World War II and served on the State Food Industry Advisory Board of Michigan in World War II.

Mr. St. Peter was a member of St. John's Church, a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus and a Grand Knight (for two terms) of the Action was taken by the Council on recommendation of the Safety Advisory Committee, headed by Mrs. Oliver Fuller, chairman.

The Council adopted a resolution recommended by the Safety Advisory Committee and addressed to the State Highway Commissioner and the Commissioner of State Public Safety.

Ask Traffic Survey
It is pointed out in the resolution that areas adjacent to the trunklines in Escanaba are rapidly becoming business and residential districts, and that "a hazardous condition exists due to the high speeds at which come vehicles travel through this area."

The state was requested to "conduct a traffic survey and recommend speed zones within the aforementioned area on said trunklines."

"Speed limits as established by the survey will be adopted by the City Council and will be incorporated in the local traffic ordinance and will be enforced by motor patrol," the resolution stated.

Aid To Enforcement
It has been pointed out by the Safety Advisory Committee that present speed limits of 25 miles an hour are too low on some sections of the trunkline highways, that signing is inadequate, and that "step-down" control of speed to warn the motorist of his approach to business and residential areas is required as he enters the city.

On the basis of the requested study the state will be able to advise the city on speed control zoning, the necessary signing will be erected, and the city will enforce the speed laws under local ordinance.

Speed control zoning, standard in many communities, is established on trunkline highways with the consent and cooperation of the state.

Menominee Council, Knights of Columbus. He was a charter member and past president of the Menominee Rotary Club, a member of the Menominee Chamber of Commerce, a past director of the U. P. Development Bureau and a member of the Chippewa Club of Iron Mountain.

In 1904, Mr. St. Peter was married to Miss Agnes O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Connor, who survives with their seven children. They are: Francis P. St. Peter, Mrs. Jean Worth and John St. Peter, Menominee; Atty. ## City Studies Unpaid Bills

City Council last night placed on its list of "doubtful accounts" unpaid bills totaling $4,228.36 but held up action on $2,861.21 in uncollected utility bills dating back over a period of years.

Periodically the city takes action to change such uncollected accounts from the side of accounts receivable to the reserve for doubtful accounts as part of its bookkeeping procedures.

Mayor Robert E. LeMire balked at listing some of the accounts as uncollectible and said that in the list of persons owing utility bills he saw "a number of names of persons living in the community."

Dead Or Bankrupt
City Manager A. V. Aronson and City Controller Alfred Lawrence explained that the accounts are only taken off the active list, and that the bills are not cancelled and that attempts to obtain payment will be continued.

In transferring the $3,201.97 in uncollected utility bills to "doubtful accounts" the Council was informed that these were accounts of persons now deceased or of former customers now bankrupt.

Of the total $4,228.36 placed in the "doubtful" accounts' list, $1,026.39 were miscellaneous accounts and the remainder of $3,201.97 was uncollected utility bills.

Mayor LeMire held that "where the individual still lives in the community and his utility service every effort should be made to collect."

Study Collection Plan
City Manager Aronson said continuing efforts are made to collect and suggested the Council confer with the city treasurer on accounts in which the Councilmen have knowledge of the individual's whereabouts.

The city controller pointed out that some of the bills are more than seven years old and thus outlawed under statute. The City Council will further study the uncollected utility bills in an effort to work out a method of collection, at least on some of them.

The city annually bills about $1,100,000 for utility services, and of this total only about one-tenth of one per cent is not collected, the city manager reported.

Hire Auditor
In other business the Council, on recommendation of the city manager, employed Andrew Skaug of Escanaba to make the annual audit of the city's books and records at a cost not to exceed $1,875. The bid of Hilmer Johnson, Escanaba, was $2,500. Both are certified public accountants.

In reply to a question, City Manager Aronson said that he is not recommending Ernst & Ernst.

U. P. History Conference Set

The third annual Upper Peninsula regional history conference will open tomorrow at Houghton, with the Houghton County Historical Society host to visiting delegates from all sections of the U. P.

Dr. R. Allen Good of the history and geography department, Michigan College of Mining and Technology, and Charles Follo of Escanaba, trustee of the State Historical Society of Michigan, are co-chairmen of the conference.

The two-day conference will open at 1:30 p. m. Saturday in the new Union building at Michigan College of Mining and Technology, where the program will include reports of local historical societies in the U. P.

Talks will be presented by Dr. Louis Beeson, Lansing, executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Commission and the Historical Society of Michigan; Alexis Praus, Kalamazoo, president of the Historical Society of Michigan; and Mrs. Betty Adams, Pontiac, president of the Michigan Historical Commission.

Frank Bender, Jr., Soo Hill, past president of the Delta County Historical Society, will present the Delta county report. He and Mrs. Bender, secretary of the local Historical Society; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Coon of Escanaba, local society members and his nephew James Follo of Kalamazoo will leave for Houghton tomorrow.

Speakers at the Saturday night banquet will be Dr. James Fisher, professor emeritus of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, and Dr. Good, who will present papers on the history of the Copper Country. Sunday's program will feature a tour of the Copper Country and an afternoon session at Fort Wilkins at Copper Harbor.

Come out and compare, comments are ever welcome. You home owners who have recently built know what to look for.

FUTURE HOME BUILDERS:

Come on out and see for yourself what masonry can do for your home. BRIKCRETE is tops for beauty and economy. The interior walls are of gypsum tile and colored plaster, another double barreled bargain of economy and efficiency.

WHOEVER YOU ARE:

You'll find you're welcome to browse through and note the many features of this modern masonry home, such as:

- All thermopane windows
- Vitrolite bathroom with built in lavatory and spacious mirror.
- Modern functional kitchen and utility room with ample cabinets of unusual design and construction.
- Large garage with hobby and storage space, all heated.
- Clean, straight, attractive exterior lines with plenty of flower planters and an inviting front entrance.

And many other features that require seeing to appreciate.

THE CURIOUS:

You too, are so very welcome! We feel if you're deeply impressed, you will tell your friends about masonry and what a little extra planning can do for a home. And practically everyone is a potential home builder.

Sorry, The Home Has Been Sold .::

We simply invite you, the public to look it over. First, because we want you to see first-hand the advantages of masonry construction, such as low original cost . . . plus the sturdiness and beauty . . . not to mention the reduced fire hazards of masonry construction. Secondly, because there are many other 'plus features' of other trades that will draw no end of favorable comments, and that can be easily incorporated into any home. Again, we urge you to inspect this modern home.

Truman Debates T-H Act While Steel Strike Weakens Nation

WITH the same obstinacy that marked his stand on claimed "inherent powers" to seize the steel industry, President Truman now holds that the Taft-Hartley Act will not work.

Because he is of the opinion the Taft-Hartley Act will "not work" the President has not invoked it in efforts to settle the steel dispute. His inaction is typical. The Senate has asked him to invoke the law,

No Cause For Cheer In Financial Report

THE federal deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30 is going to be a lot less than government experts had anticipated. The deficit apparently will be between two to three billion dollars less than expected, but that fact should not be cause for glee.

It has not been caused by economizing. The deficit will not be as great as anticipated only because production has not met expectations and defense orders have not been filed according to plan.

Defense production has bogged down in many plants. Because the defense goods have not been manufactured at the rate expected, the government has not spent as much money for these items as had been anticipated.

There is no cause for happiness in this report. On the contrary, it is somewhat disappointing.

If the deficit were two or three billion dollars less than anticipated because the government reduced operating costs, there would be reason to cheer. Such is not the case, alas.

We just did not build guns, ships, planes and all the armaments of war and defense at the speed we had hoped. And because we have not attained this production, we are lagging behind our schedule for rearmament.

That's not good.

Questions and Answers

Q—In what country is Kite's Day celebrated?

A—In China, on the ninth day of the ninth month. Thousands of kites shaped like dragons, fishes, birds and butterflies are flown over cities and towns throughout the country. Each colorful kite is supposed to float away evils which might attack its owner.

Q—What military academy in England corresponds to our West Point?

A—The Royal Military College at Sandhurst.

Q—What caused the statue of Memnon to "sing"?

A—The stone of the statue was full of very small pores or holes. The sudden change of temperature at sunrise probably forced air through the damp stone and caused a musical sound.

Q—Has the State of Ohio an official motto?

A—No. Ohio adopted Imperium in Imperio, a government within a government, in 1866 and repealed it in 1868.

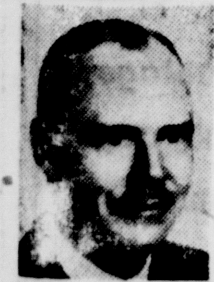

Q—Will the British Royal family retain the name of Windsor?

A—Queen Elizabeth II will retain the name of Windsor rather than change to Mountbatten, the name of her husband's family.

The Doctor Says... Dizziness Common in Disease That Causes Noises in Ears

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D. — Written for NEA Service

An extremely common complaint of older people is a buzzing, ringing or hissing sound known technically as tinnitus in one or both ears.

Not only is it uncomfortable to have noises in the ears, but it also causes a good deal of anxiety. Judging by letters received, people who have this unpleasant symptom would do almost anything to get rid of it.

Far and away the most common cause is a condition known as Meniere's disease. At the beginning of this peculiar condition, the sounds are likely to be in one ear only and associated with mild impairment in hearing. The disease is often associated with spells of dizziness, and indeed when severe, people sometimes fall and injure themselves.

In at least some forms of Meniere's disease, the cause is believed to be a drop in the deep portion of the ear called the inner ear, or labyrinth. This drop in fluid—accumulation of fluid—does not often develop in young people, but from the age of 45 on is increasingly common. Why it should come at all is not known.

the House is prepared to request that he do so.

But the President places his own arbitrary opinion, his own personal likes and dislikes, above the law of the land.

It required a Supreme Court decision to convince the President that he does not have authority to seize the steel plants; it may require another decision of Supreme Court—or perhaps impeachment—to persuade him that the President is a servant of the people, elected to obey the law rather than to flout it.

President Truman openly expressed his dislike of the Taft-Hartley Act by vetoing it. It was passed over his veto and adopted into the law of the land. The President then said that since it was law he would use it. He invoked it at least once with satisfactory result.

Perhaps the result was too satisfactory, for in the steel dispute the President preferred to seize the steel industry in violation of the constitution rather than to use the legal machinery of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Today the President stands at another crossroads in public service. He has been standing there a long time. His claim that the steelworkers waited 99 days before striking shows how long he has dallied with an issue so vital to the national security.

That he continues to delay invoking the Taft-Hartley Act is obvious indication that the President prefers his obstinate opinion to established law. The nation suffers while he debates whether the law will or will not work.

The President's responsibility is clear. The Taft-Hartley Act should be called into force in the steel dispute. If under the Act the steel workers refuse to return to their jobs while negotiations are in progress the President has at least done his part to halt the nation-crippling walkout.

Then Congress and the courts can have their say on the legality of the union's refusal. If the Taft-Hartley Act must be tested, this is the time. Let there be no more delay.

SMALL PENALTY (Iron Mountain News)

Forfeiture of operator's license for only six months is, in our opinion, a ridiculously-light penalty for the 16-year-old Niagara youth who Sunday afternoon endangered the lives of several persons—including other 'teen-age occupants of the car he was driving—while trying to escape from Sergeant Peebles, of the state police.

Here was a typical case of an irresponsible youngster who, in a wild ride through heavily-traveled streets of Iron Mountain and Kingsford, was determined to escape arrest at the risk of anyone who happened to get in his path. As a result he narrowly missed several youngsters playing ball in Location 25; he drove several cars off the road, endangering the lives of the occupants, and he played fast and loose with the lives of other young people in his car.

It is a miracle that no one was killed or critically injured. And for all this, the boy lost his driver's license for six months. What is the lesson to be learned here? Is it that any other youngster who wants to defy the police and risk the lives of others can also get off lightly?

Loss of driving privileges until he is at least 21 years of age would have been none too severe for this young man. Even that would have been easy.

Viewed from the angle of the risk to others in the path of his wild ride, this reckless youngster got the break of a lifetime. Only time will tell if he appreciates it.

Safety tip to motorists: If you insist on taking corners on two wheels, ride a bicycle.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A lot has been said about the reasons why able Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois does not want to run for President. Probably the most cogent reason is his family.

Wives have played an important part in the lives of American Presidents and presidential candidates, from the days of Thomas Jefferson through Abraham Lincoln who was never happy with his wife, to the late great Arthur Vandenberg who never really wanted to run for President because of a former friendship with a lady diplomat.

There is nothing secret or unusual about Governor Stevenson's domestic problems. They are no discredit to him. He was unhappily married for many years, is now divorced, and is reported to be in love with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, daughter of the noted Baptist clergyman, Harry Emerson Fosdick. Miss Fosdick is now a member of the State Department's policy and planning board, one of the top diplomatic jobs in the nation.

But politics is a cruel business. And a man who runs for President virtually has to sacrifice children and marital happiness, to say nothing of facing the opposition of those church leaders who do not believe in divorce.

Governor Stevenson's wife was Ellen Borden of Chicago, daughter of a Chicago lawyer and no relation to the Borden milk family. Mrs. Stevenson, however, always seemed to look down her nose just a bit at marrying a boy from the corn belt, even though Adlai was the grandson of a vice president of the United States.

POETESS VS. POLITICIAN
She didn't particularly like living in downstate Bloomington, where Adlai owns an interest in The Pantagraph, of which he was once assistant editor. In Chicago she was happier. There she used to write sonnets, was considered a better than average poetess, and had a fairly good play, in verse, produced by a college theater.

Came the election of Franklin Roosevelt in 1932 and Adlai went to Washington as special counsel to Henry Wallace's AAA, returning to Chicago after a year to practice law, then going back to Washington just before Pearl Harbor as assistant to Frank Knox, a Republican, whom FDR had made Secretary of the Navy.

Ellen Stevenson scoffed at returning to Washington. She complained that Adlai's friends always talked politics or economics. They didn't understand art. In fact, they didn't even know the difference between a sonnet and a canto.

She also complained that Adlai was always "assistant to somebody." He always played second fiddle. He was assistant to the Secretary of the Navy, later assistant to the Secretary of State, and he was assistant to the U. S. delegation on establishing the United Nations. But he was never top dog.

Mrs. Stevenson did, however, like England. Adlai went to London with the U. S. Economic Mission toward the end of the war, and there Ellen found congenial people. They appreciated literature and she was happy.

BLEAK DINNERS
Finally, the day came when Adlai was no longer assistant to somebody, no longer played second fiddle. He became governor of Illinois. But that didn't seem to make her much happier.

On the day Adlai was inaugurated in Springfield, Mrs. Stevenson started out quite bravely. She was polite and gay. But before the day was over, she drooped. She was obviously bored and inclined to insult the people who trooped over her lawn and the politicians on whose cooperation her husband's career depended.

There followed dull, bleak meals at the executive mansion. Friends noticed that Adlai excused himself after dinner, retired to his study to work. Eventually, Mrs. Stevenson proposed divorce.

What the governor is reported disliking most about a presidential campaign is the effect it might have on his two boys. There's also the fact that a divorced President has never yet occupied the White House. Finally, there's the political possibility that the Catholic vote, though tolerant of an unmarried divorcee, might not be so tolerant if the governor remarried—especially if his new wife was the daughter of Harry Emerson Fosdick, an outstanding Protestant cleric.

These are some of the things that have weighed heavily on the mind of the man who still remains the top choice of most Democratic leaders and who has been the best governor of Illinois in many, many years.

Profit Boom Of 21 Cents Brings Smiles To Equity Theater Faces

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—A profit of 21 cents for the year may not seem sensational, but the Equity Library Theatre, Inc., was very happy about it. So were a couple of hundred ambitious young actors.

The ELT is an arm of Actors' Equity Association, the union of stage players. Its purpose is to "showcase" its members, so that the talent buyers of Broadway, television and movies can see them in action. Besides its own plays, it runs the Community Theatre, which brings good plays to neighborhood community centers.

It was the Community Theatre end of the operation which showed the 21-cent profit last year. These productions have paid casts and directors, while ELT talent works for free. That profit, small as it was, showed that Community Theatre could be self-supporting, and it's continuing.

It's the ELT itself, however, that is the organization's chief interest. Each season, 15 plays are produced, running for six performances each, on a $30 budget. ELT maintains fairly complete supplies of scenery, lights, props and costumes, but to stage a complex play on $30 takes ingenuity.

All the performers are drawn from Equity membership rolls. When a play is to be given, a notice is tacked up on the bulletin boards at Equity headquarters and the ELT theatre. Any Equity member can audition for any part. If he's picked, he must rehearse for four weeks.

Often established performers try out for ELT parts, in a desire to show producers that they can do something besides their usual roles. There was Carmen Mathews for example, long known for her ability in heavy dramatic parts. She played light comedy in one ELT production, and has since had many comedy parts on Broadway.

Most of the ELT casts, however, are made up of youngsters who've had only walk-ons and bit parts on Broadway, plus Summer stock experience. Lyn Ely, the ELT executive secretary, estimates that 50 per cent of the ELT players get jobs as a result of their appearances.

Since it started in 1943, ELT has helped such performers as Betsy Drake, Charlton Heston, Bethel Leslie, Elaine Stritch, Lenore Lonergan, Wesley Addy and Paula Lawrence. Altogether, some 8000 actors have been seen by ELT audiences, most of whom are theatrical, movie and television producers and casting directors. It's almost exclusively a invited audience.

Typical of those looking for breaks was the star of this year's ELT production of "One Touch of Venus," pretty Beverly McFadden. This play was unusual in that it was produced by Chorus Equity, the division of Actors' Equity that includes chorus people only.

Miss McFadden, a 24-year-old red-head from Pittsburgh, took the part originally played on Broadway by Mary Martin. She'd appeared in three Broadway shows, in the singing and dancing choruses of "Make a Wish," "Finlan's Rainbow," and "Two on the Aisle."

She noticed the call for "One Touch of Venus," and tried out for a secondary role as a comedienne. That's the field she wanted to crack.

"I can always make people laugh," she says.

But the director thought she'd be better as the lead, and she auditioned for that too, and got it. The audience saw her as the glamorous Venus, and she's gotten offers of jobs in Summer stock and a fee for a Broadway musical as a result of her performance.

Without ELT, she could have gone around knocking on producers' doors forever. With it, she had a chance to display her talent to talent buyers. She thinks the whole thing is wonderful.

Buttons Boom In 1952 Is Big Business Opportunity

By GEORGES EMEDEL
NEA Special Correspondent

CHICAGO — (NEA) No matter who wins, Chicago's button makers can't lose in 1952.

Early returns from the big political emblem manufacturers here, who make the bulk of the nation's campaign buttons, show they're already in their biggest season in history.

So far, as convention time approaches, they've made six million Eisenhower buttons, with Taft buttons a close second. Kefauver has ordered a million, and backers of Illinois Governor Adlai Stevenson, who said he wasn't running, are ordering buttons just the same.

Some idea of the size of the button business in a presidential year is indicated by the leading manufacturer in Chicago, who expects to turn out 100 million buttons in his shop. And that's just a share of the business.

The emblems are stamped out of lithographed sheets that bear as many as 400 impressions. At the Green Duck Metal Stamping Co., which claims about 80 per cent of the nation's button business, 2000 sheets an hour emerge from automatic ovens; that's 800,000 buttons.

Earl Butler, vice president of Green Duck, which has been in the business since 1906, explains, "all we care about is making buttons. We're not backing any candidate. We make buttons for both Republicans and Democrats."

The size of the order governs the cost of buttons. The one inch red, white and blue pin-on button costs from 10 to 15 cents on order of 100 or less. In lots of one million the price is about half a cent. Lapel tabs cost much less.

Two things are watched carefully by producers of political campaign buttons. None are made unless paid for in advance. All buttons bear the union made label.

"We insist on cash because we can never tell

when a candidate might suddenly withdraw from the race leaving us with thousands of dollars worth of meaningless buttons on our hands," Butler says.

"And as for the union label: We print it on both the front and the back. Not even a candidate for dog catcher would dare to distribute a button without it."

A Kefauver bend-over lapel tab shaped like a coonskin cap is the most unusual design so far. Red, white and blue are standard colors, although some Taft emblems in black and orange are the next most popular color combination.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

LITTLE RACCOON CHILDREN—Herbert Smith of Gladstone, retired from the Soo Line to a summer cabin at Garth, now believes that nature's children have a special fondness for him.

One of the attractive features of his Garth cabin is a large fieldstone fireplace.

Hearing a noise in the fireplace chimney recently he investigated and found that a mother raccoon had moved in with her family of babies. They were comfortably housed in the flue just above the fireplace damper.

The raccoons first made their way to the roof, thence down the chimney, perhaps in the belief it was a hollow tree. Fortunately Herb did not build a fire before he discovered the cause of the noise. The raccoon family scamped up and away after they were disturbed.

VERY IMPRESSIVE—There were pleasant sights as well as sounds for those who attended the band concert in Ludington Park Wednesday night.

The Escanaba City Band, directed by Charles P. Johnson, had its members decked out in their new uniforms, a resplendent group indeed. They had combined for the concert with the Escanaba High School Band, directed by Robert S. Meyer.

With both bands in uniform the effect was impressive. And the program was pleasing, with Johnson and Meyer sharing the honors as conductors.

There is one thing lacking—not the fault of the bandsmen. Ludington Park needs a bandshell, dedicated to the memory of the late Frank Karas, one of Escanaba's ablest musicians and leader of the City Band for many years.

The Karas Memorial draws nearer to realization, however, for more than $5,000 has been raised and turned over to the city for the bandshell fund. The selection of a site and the hiring of an architect to draw plans are the next steps in the project.

BIG BIRTHDAY PARTY—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harnischfeger of Milwaukee are the parents of a son, third child in the family.

The new arrival was welcomed Thursday with one of the largest "birthday parties" that has come to our attention.

At Milwaukee and Escanaba and other cities where there are Harnischfeger Corporation plants the employees were presented with a couple bottles of the brew that has made Milwaukee famous.

Altogether some 10,000 bottles of beer were handed out to approximately 5,000 employees of the organization as they left the plant at the end of their shift for a "drink on Henry." The child is the second son in the family.

FISHERMAN'S DISAPPOINTMENT—As the weather becomes warmer some fishermen are finding it difficult to convince their wives that the fish they have taken from the Escanaba river near the US-41 bridge are fit to eat.

The reason for the cook's disappointment is the smell of the fish while cooking, and the taste of the fish when it is ready for serving. This smell and taste is described as reminiscent of chemicals.

Fact that the fish live in the water and appear to be in good health assures their being edible. But to some taste the flavor is too "high" to be agreeable. Fish of the same species taken from bay waters do not have the disagreeable flavor and odor.

FINDING THE CAUSE — In Lower Michigan the Department of Conservation reports that fish are believed to have been killed by too generous spraying of insecticides by airplane. The spray was over a cottage area to rid it of mosquitoes.

This is an obvious effect of man's misguided tampering with nature's balance. And a dyed-in-the-wool fisherman would rather have two mosquitoes and fish than no fish at all.

Perhaps chemical-happy man, with his insecticides, vitamins, inorganic fertilizers and other scientific aids is doing nature more harm than good.

READERS ASK QUESTIONS

Huntington, W. Va.—"Is the following sentence correct or should the pronoun be who: 'I trust you will elect the person whom you think is best fitted for the office?'"—Miss A. B.

Answer—Omit the parenthetical phrase, "you think," and you will readily see that who must be used as the subject of the predicate "is best fitted." Thus, "I trust you will elect the person who is best fitted for the office" is obviously correct. It then becomes apparent that the full sentence should be, "I trust you will elect the person who you think is best fitted for the office."

Lake Charles, La.—"There are five men and five women to be seated at dinner guests. My wife suggests that they be interspersed at the table. I say she should have them intermingled. Which is correct?"—H. O. M.

Answer—Intersperse is used of things, rather than of people, so intermingle is the better word. But, as this suggests that there might be two or three men or women seated together, I think Emily Post would agree that the guests be alternated, rather than intermingled.

Kalamazoo—Is it proper or necessary to use got in such constructions as, 'I have got an automobile,' or, 'I have got to go away?'"—D. D. C.

Answer—Got is not necessary in either construction, but, depending on the meaning, it may be thoroughly justifiable. If used in the sense of acquired or procured, it may be properly employed. For example, if by dint of hard labor a young man has finally been able to purchase an automobile, he may rightfully say, "At last, I've got an automobile." Also, got may be properly used to express an imperative necessity. "I have got to go away," implies that it is of the greatest importance that I go away. A similar thought lies behind a parent's statement, "Ben, you've got to study."

Even when past your prime you can always prime yourself for the future.

New Water Plant One-Third Done

Rapid progress in the construction of the city's new six million gallon water filtration plant on Sand Point moved the project beyond the one-third completion point this week.

About 70 per cent of the concrete work and the major portion of work on the tanks has been completed on the structure now scheduled for testing about Dec. 15. Intensified work during the past eight weeks brought a sharp rise in work progress from a slow beginning last year due to unfavorable weather and a shortage of steel, according to project engineer William Cadigan.

Already completed are the primary treatment tanks—the flocculation and settling basins where the water is initially purified.

A huge storage reservoir which will hold one million gallons of purified water in readiness for use is 50 per cent finished. Concrete work is slated for completion about July 30, Cadigan stated.

Work crews began today to cover the exterior walls of the 276-by-110-foot structure with lannon stone.

Installation of electrical controls and mechanical equipment is now in progress.

About 10 subcontractors have been engaged by general contractors Pearson Construction Company of Benton Harbor. The engineering firm of Consoer and Townsend is in charge of the entire construction project.

Soo Hill

Achievement Program Tonight

SOO HILL—Mrs. Donald S. Summers of Cornell, teacher of the junior and intermediate classes of the Soo Hill Union Bible School, invites all parents to attend the achievement program this evening at 8 at the Soo Hill School. This program marks the end of the two week session. Nine students are enrolled in Mrs. Summers classes, and 14 students are enrolled in the beginner and primary classes led by Miss Jean Campbell.

Club Plans Playground
The Soo Hill Men's Club discussed the final stages of the transaction to purchase property for the community playground at the meeting held last Tuesday. There was a discussion of necessary major equipment, and plans are being formulated for preparing an ice rink next winter.

Reliefs
Mrs. Charles Fletcher and daughters, Christine and Susan, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fredrickson, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fletcher. Mr. Fletcher will join them June 28 and will remain for two weeks.

Cat Mothers Rabbits At Least For A While

MARION, Ill.—(AP)—The Bill Singers tell a hare-raising tale in which an apparently nice mother cat may turn out to be the villain. It was found that the cat's new kittens were being nursed along with two adopted bunnies. Mrs. Singer said the big cat was as gentle with the wild hares as if they were her own. However, she has caught and eaten grown rabbits. Mrs. Singer sighed: "Maybe she's waiting until they grow up for the big feast."

THE CITY'S NEW WATER PLANT, nearing the halfway mark in construction, moves swiftly toward completion when it will be able to treat six million gallons of water per day. The modern concrete structure will be tested about Dec.

Extend Water Plant Contact

Escanaba City Council last night granted a request of Pearson Construction Company, engaged in the construction of the city water plant, to extend its contract time from Oct. 15 to Dec. 15, 1952, for completion of the project.

City Manager A. V. Aronson told the Council that bad weather last year plus delay in receiving reinforcing steel delayed progress on the project. Now the work is going forward satisfactorily and rapid progress is being made.

In other business the Council reported on construction work proposed for financing in 1952-1953, for which provisions are made in the budget, and no objections being heard the improvements were approved. At next meeting the Council will hear objections, if any, to special assessments required to finance part of the work.

The Council referred to the engineering department for study and a report on estimated costs of constructing a sanitary sewer on Eighth Ave. S. from the alley west of 19th St. to 23rd St. More than 80 per cent of the owners of abutting property had petitioned the Council for the installation.

On recommendation of the Civil Service Commission the Council established the wage for recreation instructor at $1.24 minimum to $1.34 maximum per hour at three years; for life guard from $1 minimum to $1.24 maximum per hour at three years.

City Council adopted a resolution commending John Clark, superintendent of the gas and steam utilities, who will leave July 1 for another city, for his capable and effective service to the city of Escanaba.

The subject of public liability insurance to protect the city against possible damage claims in connection with operations of the city's new propane gas plant was informally discussed by the Council. In the past the city has not had such coverage.

John J. Kates Dies Suddenly

John J. Kates, prominent resident of Mount Pleasant, and a member of a widely known Escanaba family, died suddenly Thursday at his home. He was 58.

Mr. Kates was born in Grand Island, Nebr., Feb. 19, 1894, and he married the former Dorothy Reade, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reade, in Escanaba October 12, 1926.

He was owner of the Alfalfa Milling Co. of Mt. Pleasant and had disposed of the business only recently.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. James Henry Powell of East Lansing, one son, Reade Kates of Mount Pleasant, one grandson, John Reade Kates, and a sister, Miss Fern Kates of Alma, Mich.

College Seniors In Demand For Jobs

DALLAS—(AP)—Southern Methodist University shares with other U. S. colleges in the "seller's market" on 1952 college seniors.

D. Y. Robb, director of student placement at SMU, says the demand for college grads by business and industry and the salaries they can command have reached a record high this year.

Engineers and scientists especially are in demand. Salaries are up 1- to 20 per cent, Robb says. Starting salaries for engineers are between $300 to $400 a month.

Highway Parking Control Limited

LANSING—(P)—Circuit Judge Louis E. Coash of Ingham county today ruled that the state has no control over parking or traffic regulations on state trunklines within cities.

The decision, which may have a far-reaching effect on the state highway department's program for uniform traffic controls on highways throughout the state, was expected to be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

A group of East Lansing businessmen had sought court action to overrule a parking ban imposed on US-16 in the city by the highway department.

The city of East Lansing joined the merchants in the suit. The court ruled that "the regulation of traffic, including the parking of automobiles upon a city street, is an ordinary power of police generally exercised by municipalities and comes within the powers granted by the state Constitution to cities."

In earlier arguments, the state held that an adverse decision would "bring chaos" to the uniform traffic control system and would "take us back to horse and buggy days."

Deputy highway commissioner Harry Coons said he was sure the decision would be appealed to the high court.

Wall Street

By RADAR WINGET
NEW YORK — (P) — Railroads provided a ragged drag on the stock market today and dampened advancing tendencies.

Many leading railroads sold at small losses, and this was enough to turn that major division into an irregular pattern.

Throughout the list prices ranged from a point higher to a point lower with a few outstanding exceptions either way.

The pace of business slowed down considerably from yesterday's total of 1,320,000 which was the best in a couple of weeks.

Steels held steady after overcoming early sagging tendencies. Automobiles clung to small gains.

Emerson Radio dropped around 2 points to a new low for the year after directors declared a dividend of 10 cents as compared with 25 cents previously paid quarterly.

All other radio-television issues suffered in the decline. Philco forecast record sales prospects this year in excess of $35 million dollars. The stock was fractionally lower along with the rest of that section.

Among higher stocks were Chrysler, Boeing, American Car & Foundry, and Standard Oil of California. Lower stocks included Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, American Telephone, and Radio Corp.

All Consumer Goods Ceilings May Be Removed

would amount to killing controls. "In essence, this is saying there will be no price control law," declared Rep. Hays (D-Ohio), who opposed the amendment.

Spence told the House it should face squarely the issue of price controls and not destroy them by "just whittling away."

Coalition Calls Shots

The Talle amendment, Spence added, would destroy the machinery of the controls administration by abolishing the reports on which controls are based. Once controls were lifted under the Talle provision, reports now required by dealers would no longer have to be made.

The amendment directed the lifting of controls on all materials which are not in short supply or which have been selling at below ceiling prices for at least three months.

Then it says materials shall not be considered in short supply unless they are being rationed or allocated for civilian use. Controls could be reimposed whenever materials are allocated or rationed.

Before adopting the Talle amendment, the House beat a substitute by Rep. Cole (R-Kas.) which would have lifted controls in 90 days on prices and services not in short supply or not important in relation to business or living costs, with a periodic review of the price situation every 90 days. That lost by a voice vote.

A series of test votes yesterday established that a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats could call their own shots and back them up with votes.

Truman Reluctant

President Truman's lieutenants admitted they do not now have the power to prevent (1) an amendment telling Truman he should use the Taft-Hartley law in the steel strike, or (2) a companion move to strip the Wage Stabilization Board of its power to act in industrial disputes.

Both proposals were expected to come up for votes today. Truman told a news conference yesterday Congress has no power to make him use the Taft-Hartley law, with its 80-day no-strike injunction provision. The President said the possible use of the law has been under consideration all along. But he indicated he is still reluctant to use it. And he questioned whether the striking CIO United Steelworkers would obey a back-to-work order from a court.

Bill Expires Soon

House Democrats said they hoped to complete action on the controls bill today. Some Republicans thought the measure might have to be put over until next week.

The bill, containing all the basic economic control powers, is due to expire at the end of this month. The Senate already has passed an extension bill, but differences between this and the version finally adopted by the House must be adjusted in conference.

The administration took several hard bumps yesterday and appeared in for even rougher treatment today.

Cricket Horde Moves Toward Reservoir Of Little Nevada Town

RENO — (P) — A horde of Mormon crickets—25 miles wide and 14 miles deep—was creeping today toward the water supply of Austin, a little mining and ranching town 150 miles east of Reno.

The 325 residents, sheriff's deputies and three cricket control men from the state department of agriculture temporarily stopped the invasion about half a mile from the town's water reservoir yesterday.

But they ran out of poisoned mash.

Later reports placed the crickets only a quarter-mile from the reservoir.

Townpeople fear the horde will contaminate the reservoir. The Mormon cricket—a large, black, voracious insect—got its name by common usage after swarms invaded the grain fields of early Mormon settlers in Utah in 1850.

The fields were saved when seagulls appeared and gobbled up the crickets.

Vegetables need one inch of water each week during warm weather. If rain fails to supply it, the gardener must. Don't sprinkle, but soak the soil.

Women Prefer Dust To Oiled Streets In Suburb Of Saginaw

SAGINAW, Mich. — (P) — Most housewives wage a continuous battle against dust, but housewives in suburban Bridgeport yesterday battled for the filthy stuff.

The aroused women blockaded two streets and refused to let a county oil truck lay dust on the unpaved streets.

"We'd rather have dust," they said as they blocked one intersection with a rope and a garden tractor. The housewives have been complaining about the oil surfacing for years. Yesterday they went in to action.

One housewife, explaining the preference for dust, said "The kids track oil all over the house after the truck comes."

The county road commission said the women had demanded in place of the oil a compound that lays dust. The road commissioner said the housewives would get nothing if they continued to block the oiling.

Size Of Marine Corps Increased

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON — (P) — A bill raising the size of the Marine Corps, and giving the leathernecks more independence and influence in the military establishment, landed on President Truman's desk today.

There was nothing to indicate whether Truman—who came off second-best in one famed row with the Marines—would sign the measure into law or risk another controversy by rejecting it.

The President and the Marine Corps tangled last over a 1950 letter in which Truman said the Marines had a propaganda machine equal to Stalin's. Some ex-Marines happened to be holding a convention at the time, and raised the roof. Truman apologized to them in person.

Considerable enthusiasm—no body used the word propaganda this time—on the part of ex-Marines in Congress put steam behind the new bill which whipped through both Houses yesterday by unanimous voice votes.

The compromise, now past Congress and resting on Truman's desk, would do these things for the Marines:

1. Put their commandant on the joint chief with a voice in policy or strategy matters that "directly concern the Marine Corps."
2. Assure them independence from the Navy, of which they are a part, as far as size and organization are concerned.
3. Allow them permanently in peacetime to build up to 400,000 men and officers of three divisions and three air wings, with no manpower ceiling at all in war or emergency.

The corps is now limited to one-fifth the peacetime power of the Navy and has a strength of about 214,000.

Sabre Pilots Ambush 6 Communist Planes In Northern Korea

SEOUL, Korea—(P)—Six American Sabre jet pilots said today they destroyed two and damaged two of six Communist propeller-driven planes they ambushed just south of the Manchuria-North Korea border.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said the two damaged planes may have been destroyed.

On the ground, action neared a halt on the T-Bone Hill sector west of Chorwon in the west, and on the east central front southeast of Kumsong.

A. P. Correspondent Milo Farneti reported only a light artillery exchange between Reds dug in on T-Bone and Allied soldiers who defended the area during six days of bitter fighting which finally simmered Wednesday.

Other action along the 155-mile front included scattered patrol movements and small probes by both sides northwest of Yonchon, near Chorwon and east of the Pukhan river.

Angus Ward Named Envoy To Afghanistan

WASHINGTON — (P) — Career diplomat Angus Ward, one-time prisoner of the Communists at Mukden, Manchuria, was nominated by President Truman today to be ambassador to Afghanistan.

The nomination means a promotion for the veteran 59-year-old foreign service officer, whose previous assignment two years ago as consul general at Nairobi, British East Africa, had caused severe criticism of the state department in Congress.

Ward won world-wide attention when he and his staff were made captives by the Communists at Mukden and for a year were denied the opportunity to leave that city.

When Ward was later assigned to Nairobi, various members of the Senate and House protested that the state department was shelving in obscurity a man known as an expert on the Far East.

In Afghanistan, Ward would succeed George R. Merrell.

Baby Food Ceiling Prices Raised By OPS

WASHINGTON — (P) — OPS has just authorized price ceiling increases for baby and "junior" foods. The increases range from 3 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents a dozen cans or jars, at the factory.

The agency estimated the retail price will rise by about a cent a can for canned baby meats, but not more than half a cent a can for other baby foods. The increase reflects increased transportation and wage costs in the industry.

Luxury Liner Cost 70 Million; Given To Firm For 28 Million

WASHINGTON — (P) — The government today turned the 70 million dollar luxury liner United States over to the U. S. Lines for the company's contract price of 28 million dollars but President Truman ordered an inquiry into whether there has been an excessive subsidy.

The White House made public a letter from the President directing that Attorney General McGranery determine what "legal action" should be taken to protect the government.

Truman told McGranery that "the amount of subsidy involved in the contract sales price" has been "seriously challenged as being excessive and added:

"In the event you should find it impossible to take corrective action under existing law, please consider the kind of new legislation that could be recommended for this purpose."

Earlier, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer announced formal delivery of the super-liner to the U. S. Lines despite objections from Comptroller General Lindsay Warren.

Warren objected three weeks ago that a 42 million government contribution to the ship's cost was much too generous. He urged Sawyer to hold up delivery of the ship unless U. S. Lines would agree to pay a bigger share of the cost.

Sawyer replied the contract was binding and unchangeable.

The United States, the world's largest and apparently its fastest passenger ship, is to set out tomorrow from Newport News, Va., for New York. It is to sail from there on its maiden transatlantic voyage July 3 with a full booking of 2,000 passengers.

Miss Wickman Will Be Bride In Church Ceremony

St. Stephen's Episcopal church will be the setting tomorrow afternoon for the wedding of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Wickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Wickman, 900 Lake Shore Drive, and Robert W. Addison of Boise, Idaho. The vows will be repeated at 3 p. m., before the Rev. Joseph S. Dickson, rector of St. Stephen's.

The bride will have Mrs. Thomas E. Kelly Jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y., as her matron of honor and Miss Anita Nelson will be maid of honor. Mr. Addison has asked LeRoy Neiman of Chicago to be his best man. Ushers will be the bride's brother, Charles R. Wickman and Gary Oakley of Lincolnwood, Ill.

The reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents.

Pamper Feet In The Summer

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Hot-weather days are not usually kind to your feet. Steaming sidewalks are the principle irritation, and since there is little you can do about them, better look for the solution elsewhere.

Proper shoes, coupled with exercise, are your best aids in eliminating the general fatigue that comes from tired and aching feet. There is quite a varied group of light-weight shoes for you to choose from, including such air-cooled fabrics as shantung, linen and nylon mesh.

Here are several simple foot exercises to help keep your feet feeling and looking lovely. The first one can be accomplished while sitting down, relaxing or reading. Take off your shoes. Then, imagine you are holding a small object between your toes. Grip as tightly as possible. Now stretch the toes far apart. Repeat until your feet tire.

Stand up for the second exercise. You may need the back of a chair for support. Feet are flat on the floor, toes are together, heels about three inches apart. Bend your knees slightly. Rotate your knees 10 times, getting them as far apart as possible.

The third exercise requires that you walk forward slowly, imagining you are reaching for something on the ceiling. When you reach up with your left hand, stand up on the toes of your left foot. Repeat with right foot and hand. Continue for two minutes. This exercise also helps the figure.

Baby Can Rest In Many Ways

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

From the moment your baby is born, you can look forward to daily differences in her attitude. This is particularly true of her willingness to take naps.

When the baby gets to be about two years old, for instance, she may decide to rebel against the ritual of being put to bed in the middle of the day.

This attitude may only be temporary, but you might just as well be prepared to face it on a long-term basis. First, make up your mind that scolding and pleading will do no good at all. Under the circumstances, it is much wiser to substitute sleep with story telling.

The important thing is to have the baby relax. You may even find, as you read to her, that she will doze off without any trouble. Another quieting influence is singing. Cuddle her in your arms and sing a lullaby or nursery rhyme.

You can be sure, however, if your baby is tired, she will take a nap without any coaxing. Your principle job at this point in life is to build security and contentment.

AS WE LIVE

Try Compromising On Teenage Dating

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

When teenagers start to work, they often become very independent and want to do just as they please, regardless of family wishes or rules. That is the problem facing the father who wrote:

(Q) "My 16-year-old daughter is working. She wants to go out nights and stay late. I have put a stop to it and now she says she is going to leave home. She says mean things to her mother and me just because I won't let her go out every night. It has come to a point where we have to do something. My wife and I are all broken up by this. I have told her she could go out once a week but that doesn't seem to be enough for her. Please tell me if I am wrong."

(A) I think once a week is rather too strict a limitation on the pleasures of a 16-year-old girl. If she were still in school, I think you would find that her friends were having dates every night over the weekend. But, as she is working, she has no lessons to prepare at night and, as a result, she doubtless wants to go out and have some fun.

Why not compromise and let her go out every other night during the week, while she is working, and every night over the weekend, if she has a date? Then, in return, ask her to come home at a reasonable hour, certainly before midnight over the weekends and by 11 p. m., during the week.

Even though she is old enough to work, she still has not completed her physical growth and development. Too late hours, combined with getting up early to be at her job on time, will play havoc with her health.

Of equal seriousness, it will play havoc with her reputation. People can see that she is still a young girl and will criticize her for being out so late. A bad reputation will be a great obstacle to her when she wants to get married.

When a teenager feels frustrated and blocked in what she wants to do, she is very likely to threaten to leave home. I wouldn't be too concerned about that if I were you. In the first place, she would find it difficult or almost impossible to get any place to live because of her age and second, she doubtless is not earning enough money to support herself away from home. Even if she did run away, she would come back when she discovered how life treats a young girl away from home.

To prepare deviled eggs peel the shells from warm hard-cooked eggs. Cut the eggs in half lengthwise. Mash the warm yolks with salt, pepper, a little melted butter or margarine, and mustard and vinegar to taste. Fill the whites with the yolk mixture, ruffle the filling with the tines of a fork, and sprinkle with paprika.

Axes To Taxes Is Ruark Plea

By ROBERT C. RUARK

NEW YORK—There must be some limit to what the citizen will take in the way of punishment from his peers, but you must applaud the American for his staying powers. They have just done a thing to the stockholders in the City of New York that is almost impossible to comprehend in its punitive arrogance.

Without giving the citizens a chance to vote on it, they have slapped a $5-$10 tax on the ownership of automobiles, according to the weight of cars. They have plastered the auto owners with these expensive stickers—to be worn decorously on windshields—because the city budget is in such sad shape that they need more money. This is not really the taxpayers' problem, because the poor man is already taxed out of his mind, what with luxury taxes, income taxes, state and federal, sales taxes and hidden taxes. But they can fail and fine you for no sticker on the windshield.

The gal that works for me has a little convertible, which is enough over the weight limit of 3500 pounds to demand a ten-buck sticker. Her father has a more expensive car, but of lighter construction so he gets by for five bucks.

Never Come Off

That makes no more sense than the arbitrary right to punish a peasant for the theft and self-denial that made the purchase of the automobile possible. It is merely a projection of governmental attitude which says simply: "The public be damned. Hit him over the head until he drops. He'll hold still for it."

There is much fine talk about a re-evaluation of the budget and the removal of the head tax on autos. But if you will inspect the past you will notice that once they paste a tax on anything, they are awful loath to unglue it. Taxes always go up. Once the public has become accustomed to the added burden, the politicians' way is to leave the load as is.

You would think that the purchase of property would be regarded as a sort of merit badge, a monument to thrift, and would be applauded. The purchase of an automobile by my gal means she has saved extensively from the meager wages she gets from me. In a way she has kept the steel business, the electrical business, the oil business—the whole inner core of American economy—alive.

Punished Taxpayers

But she pays an exorbitant insurance rate on her car. She pays this blackmail nuisance-sticker shakedown. She pays a whopping tax on gas and oil. She pays a sales tax on the outright acquisition of the auto. She pays for licenses and driving permits. She is not riding a car—she flies to work on a tax plank.

In effect, she is being punished. They are telling the girl not to save. Don't buy a car, because it's too much trouble for what you get out of it. If this ain't wrong it will have to do until we louse up the entire economy and turn us into a nation of nothing.

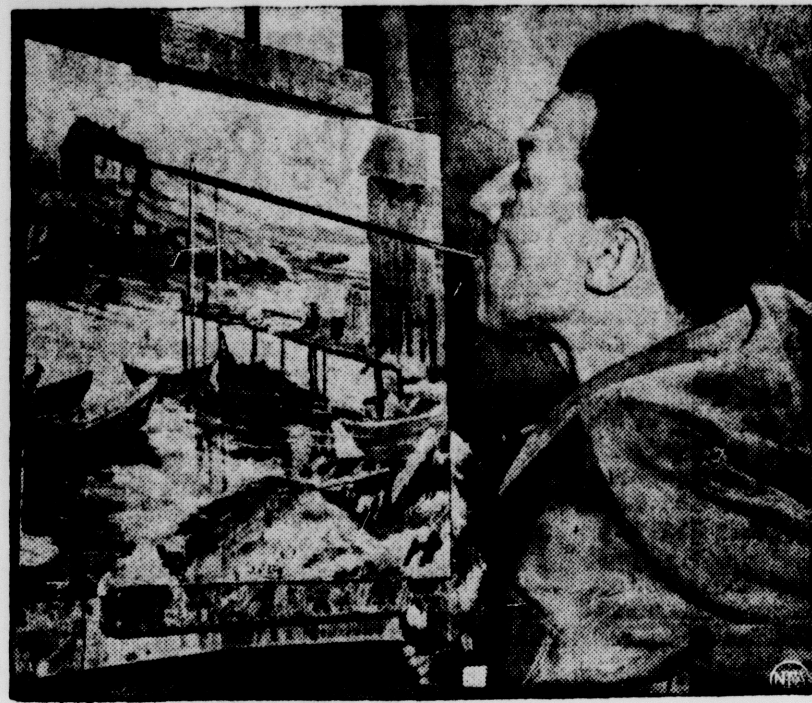

There is something in economy called a law of diminishing returns, which I understand to be founded in economic suicide. Its father and mother are vindictive taxation.

Greed of Government

The country of England is flat on its economic fanny today because assorted taxes have made it nearly impossible for people to buy a car, operate a car, buy a drink, smoke a cigarette, or save any money from income. Here we seem to be racing in the same direction.

The recent crisis of nerves in the booze business is a good example of where we head. Since they ran up the taxes on decent drinkin' liquor to prohibitive proportion, national income from whisky tax has dropped, because the people can't afford to get legally loaded any more. Bootlegging is bigger and better than during prohibition, and government cheats itself through basic greed.

America lives on its communications. The airplane, the train, the telephone and the car are the sinews and nerves and arteries of the economy. But they have made a crime of owning a car; a sin of making a phone call; a disposition of buying a train or plane ticket. And they've done it with extra added tax attractions. Silly people, poisoning the ax over the golden goose.

Mrs. Percy Clause was honored Thursday evening at a pink and blue shower held at the Alfred Anderson home. Games were played, and a party lunch was served.

Mrs. Clause received many gifts from the guests, who were Mesdames Ed Wight, Clyde Wight, Hjalmar Olson, Clifford Bucklund, Axel Carlson, Charles Harrison, Henry Rose, Warren Rose, Stacey Carlson, Lloyd Carlson, Kenneth Carlson, Art Swanson, Wilfred Mattson, Harry Blixt and Ed Blixt.

Schoolhouse Lost In Colorado Snow

HESPERUS, Colo.—(AP)—Winter is finally over but they're still talking about the "lost schoolhouse" in these parts.

Wade C. Folsom, a teacher at Mayday School, was trapped down the road to school in the La Plata Mountains several weeks back. Last night's snow had plowed up into 12-foot-high banks. The path leading to the schoolhouse was gone.

After going a couple of miles out of his way he finally spotted a familiar landmark in the snow—the tip of the school flagpole.

Business Good For New Yorkers In May

NEW YORK—(AP)—Business was at a relatively high level throughout New York State in May, except for "depressed" industries such as apparel, shoes and small metal trades which continue to be soft.

A survey by the State Employment Service of 5,100 firms employing 250,000 workers indicates they foresee a 3 per cent increase in jobs by August. More than 700 of the business firms with defense contracts predict a 6 per cent expansion in employment.

The construction industry, also considered a soft area, may improve because of eased material curbs resulting from the defense stretch-out. Construction jobs rose in March for the first time in eight months to 94,800, or 4 per cent above totals of the previous month.

"I have been taking O-JIB-WA BITTERS for about a year now and can truthfully say that it has made me feel like a new man. I have suffered with indigestion and stomach distress for about 10 years, during which time I tried dozens of patent medicines with little relief. WA to anyone with the same troubles I had." Available in all leading drug stores in Michigan.

read so much about O-JIB-WA BITTERS in the newspapers that I decided to try it too. Frankly, the results were surprising for I began to get good results in just two weeks. My stomach trouble is over and it really is great to be able to eat anything again without worrying about the after effects. I can't say enough for the good that O-JIB-WA BITTERS has done for me, and would highly recommend O-JIB-WA to anyone with the same troubles I had." Available in all leading drug stores in Michigan.

Man bites dog every day!

It's ALWAYS HAPPENING, somewhere, somehow—that reverse twist, that ordinary situation doing a somersault.

And no wonder. No two human beings are alike. The fixes they can get into, the mistakes and misdemeanors, the snafus and rhabarbs, the tough breaks and happy endings, are practically infinite.

What man has bitten what dog today? That's what everybody picks up his newspaper—every single day—to find out.

Nobody is ever disappointed. There's always at least one "Well, whaddya know..." and usually a lot of them.

For you, the stopper of the day may be strange bedfellows in politics...for your wife, it may be a new inside-out pocketbook.

But neither one of you can do without your daily charge of amazement and amusement—your newspaper.

So you read a newspaper every day

...and so does everybody else.

If you're selling something that's advertised, make sure it's advertised to all the people in town who can possibly buy.

Just as you read the paper now, all your customers and prospects read the paper too—at the time they choose, for as long as they choose—for the advertising as well as for news or for fun.

When your selling is backed by newspaper advertising, your story has a chance to reach everybody. Your audience isn't just comedy fans, or mystery fans, or sports fans...but everybody.

Is it any wonder that advertisers today invest far more of their money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising?

Only the newspaper is first with the most news...first with the most people...first with the most advertisers!

Australian's Lecture Tour Now Completed

WICHITA, Kan.—(AP)—A 39-year-old Australian newsman is back at his Wichita typewriter, after a four months' lecture tour in ten states—Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Utah, Missouri, Texas, Mississippi, California and Colorado, as well as Kansas.

Ralph Wilson Reid showed motion pictures of Australia — in black-and-white and in color—exhibited native Australian weapons, and tossed boomerangs all over the map.

Reid and his family flew to Wichita from Australia in September, 1948. They came here for special training for their oldest boy, John, now 10. Encephalitis, following measles, had left John physically active but retarded, unable to speak or understand.

John's still making good but slow progress at the Institute of Logopedics.

Sweptback Wings Reason For Speed

FARMINGDALE, N. Y.—(AP)—Sweptback wing effect will be standard for every first-line combat plane in the Air Force by 1955, says Alexander Kartveli, vice-president of Republic Aviation Corp.

"It's sweptback wings that help man fly faster than sound," he said. "Sweptback wings cut down on what airmen call drag. For example, a plane with wings swept back 45 degrees flying at the speed of sound (760 miles an hour at sea level) reacts to the pilot's control like a straight-wing plane at only 540 mph.

"Thus a plane with sweptback wings is more maneuverable at high speeds, can turn, wheel, climb and dive easier," he said.

Four Escanaba Boys, Two From Rapid River On All-Star Squad

IRON MOUNTAIN—Four Escanaba youngsters, all members of the Escanaba Bears baseball team, and two Rapid River boys have been selected to play for the Giants All Stars tonight at Kingsford field against an all star team of the Northern Wisconsin-Michigan baseball league. The game climaxes the New York Giants baseball school at Iron Mountain. The four Escanabans selected for the squad are Jim Nyquist, catcher; Joe Larmay, outfielder; John Martinac, third base; and Pete Kutches, infielder. Waldon Johnson, first baseman, and George Anderson, catcher, are the Rapid River Boys selected for the squad.

Nyquist, Martinac and Kutches are slated for starting positions on the All Star squad.

The four Escanabans chosen for the squad give the Escanaba contingent a clean sweep in the Giants all-star selection as they are the only four boys from Escanaba who entered the school.

Game time tonight is 8:30 o'clock. E. S. T.

Waubung Teams Set For Action

Al's Legion will play the Gladstone Juniors in a Waubung game at City diamond in Escanaba Sunday and the Escanaba Cubs, directed by Manager Al Ness, will play at Bark River.

In the third Waubung League game Sunday, Perronville will be at Schaffer.

Powers was rained out last Sunday and will be making its first start of the season this week. Ralph Veaser is slated to pitch for Powers with Belanger catching. Several Hermansville lads are playing with the rebuilt Powers team.

In the only game played thus far in the league, Al's Legion clubbed Perronville, 27 to 0, this week.

Dick Cass is a likely pitching choice of Manager Mac McComber for Al's Legion here Sunday.

The Escanaba Cubs, composed mainly of last year's Little League stars, probably will have Paler on the mound at Bark River.

The Waubung League is composed of teams playing under American Legion Junior League rules. Only boys 17 and younger are eligible. Boys who reached their 17th birthday prior to January 1 are not eligible.

Betty Jameson Tough Golf Foe

CHICAGO — A three-time champion opposed feminine golf's top money-winner and a titlist from a decade ago faced a 19-year-old amateur in today's semifinals of the 23rd Women's Western Open.

Medalist Betsy Rawls of Austin, Tex., who has collected almost $10,000 on the 1952 pro circuit, had a stern upper-bracket foe in Louise Suggs, the mighty Atlanta mite, who won the Western in 1946, 1947 and 1949.

In the opposite bracket, hot-shooting Betty Jameson, who won the meet in 1942, tangled over 18 holes with the only surviving simon-pure, petite Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif.

The semifinals were booked for 1:30 p. m. (EST).

Miss Jameson, golf-wise pro from San Antonio, Tex., was the gal to watch as the week-long meet at Skokie Country Club boiled towards tomorrow's 36-hole tiff.

Betty yesterday knocked out defending champion and four-time Western winner, Patty Berg, 5 and 3, as she notched her third straight decisive victory. Miss Jameson previously had scored two 7 and 6 victories, flirting with par all the way.

Miss Jameson showed no mercy to Miss Berg, whose putter froze up for two three-put greens and two misses from three feet. Betty covered the required 15 holes one over par, while Patty, never beaten before prior to the Western quarterfinals, was five over.

However, Betty had a formidable foe, despite her youth, in Miss Romack. Barbara met Miss Jameson only once previously and that was last year when she handed a 23rd-hole marathon defeat to Betty in the quarterfinals of the Texas Open.

Miss Romack, who yesterday conquered 17-year-old Barbara McIntyre of Toledo, O., 4 and 3, after a one-under-par opening 36, is playing her second Western Open. She was eliminated by Miss Rawls last year in the first round, 4 and 3.

Kansas City Closes In On Milwaukee

(By The Associated Press) The Kansas City Blues, bagging a 10-1 win over Indianapolis Thursday night behind the six-hit pitching of Ed Erazt, barged to within 1½ games of losing Milwaukee, the American Association pacesetter.

Giving the Blues an assist in their gain of a full game on the Brewers were the Louisville Colonels who counted three unearned runs in the ninth to defeat Milwaukee 4-2.

Charlie Kress drove in five runs with a homer and two singles to lead Columbus over Minneapolis 7-3.

St. Paul blanked Toledo 1-0 as Pat McGlothlin spaced 10 hits for his fourth straight decision. Hank Behrman limited the Saints to nine blows.

Bob Cerv, rookie outfielder for the New York Yankees, has three sisters who are softball stars.

Sugar Ray Goes For Two Titles

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK — (P) — Sugar Ray Robinson learns today if he can become a double world's champion by whipping light heavyweight King Joey Maxim Monday night at Yankee stadium.

Chairman Bob Christenberry and his New York State athletic commission will make a definite ruling on the ticklish question at its regular weekly meeting.

Indications are that the commission may be lenient with Sugar Ray—an exceptional case—although it has a rule on the books that no man can hold two titles. Robinson already is middleweight champion.

"A man like Robinson is an unusual man," said Christenberry yesterday at Sugar Ray's Pompton Lakes, N. J. training camp. "I think it is much better for a man like Robinson to hold two titles than for some men to hold one."

Robinson thinks so, too. In fact he said he had an "understanding" to the effect he could take his pick after a rematch if he beats Maxim Monday. Christenberry said there was no "understanding" with him.

It seems likely the commission will give Robinson a "reasonable amount of time" to take his pick. If he takes the light heavy, they will declare the middleweight crown "in abeyance" and run a tournament. The winner then must meet Robinson before he will be recognized. By that time, Robinson will have had time to honor his 90-day rematch contract with Maxim and slip gracefully back into the 160-pound class. The commission, incidentally, does not officially recognize the existence of any return bout contract.

All this, of course, is strictly "if" business—in case Robinson wins. If Maxim wins, there will be no rematch and no problem of which title Sugar Ray holds.

Bradley Star Hottest Prospect For Tigers

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. — (P) — Bill Tuttle, a 200-pound speedster who graduated from Bradley University a year ago, has taken over the spotlight as the hottest player in the Detroit Tiger minor league farm system.

Tuttle has overshadowed the work of heralded outfielders John (Bubba) Phillips and Russ Sullivan of Buffalo this season.

The 21-year-old Tuttle batted only .251 when playing the latter half of the 1951 season with Davenport of the Three-I league.

But this year, Tuttle hit .400 for Davenport as a shortstop. He was transferred to Williamsport where he's now hitting .396 and playing the outfield.

What is he, an outfielder or a shortstop? "We'll play him anywhere we can that will get him up to the (Detroit) Tigers as fast as possible," said assistant farm director Johnny McHale in Detroit. "He's one of our brightest prospects."

"Marvin Owen told us he was a big league shortstop when he was at Davenport," said McHale. Tuttle is a long ball hitter, a rarity in the Tiger farm system.

Tuttle is married and has a child.

Luke Sewell, now in his third year as manager of the Reds, is the 32nd pilot in the history of the Cincinnati club.

Grover Cleveland Alexander holds the National League record of the most shutouts during his career. He hurled 90 of them.

Ted Williams, in his debut with the Red Sox in 1939, got a double in four trips to the plate but the Yankees beat the Bostonians, 2-0.

Jim Ellis, safety man on the Michigan State football team, is a track star in the spring. He participated in both the 220 and 440 yard runs.

Workers Needed For Little League 'Bee'

Volunteers are sought Saturday afternoon for a work bee at the Little League diamond, at the Water Tower park, it has been announced.

Anyone willing to give the Little Leaguers an assist in the construction of their new park should report at one o'clock, equipped with a hammer or a rake. The outfield fence will be erected Saturday and work on the diamond also is scheduled. It is hoped to get the field in playing condition by the Fourth of July.

Play in the league has been suspended until the new diamond can be readied for action.

July 1 Deadline For Registration In Softball Meet

The deadline for joining the Upper Peninsula Softball Association is July 1st and all softball managers are reminded to pay their three dollar sanction fee to their district commissioners or to the Association treasurer, Keith Morin of Escanaba. Only sanctioned teams will be allowed to compete in the district and regional tournaments.

The Escanaba district includes the following counties: Delta, Menominee, Schoolcraft, and Alger. The district commissioner is Paul Vardigan of Escanaba.

Littlefield Returns To Tiger Roster

DETROIT — (P) — Pitcher Dick Littlefield—at his own insistence—is back on the Detroit Tiger roster.

The Tigers recently sent Littlefield down to their Buffalo farm club in the International league.

Yesterday, he showed up in Detroit and announced he was staying. Littlefield contended he had been promised a return to the Tigers by June 15.

"It looks like he forced out my hand," General Manager Charley Gehringer said as management gave in to the adamant young man.

Ailing catcher Matt Batts was placed on the inactive list to keep the Tiger squad within the 25-player limit. Batts has stomach trouble.

Red Sox Spend Big Cash For Youngsters

BOSTON — (P) — Reports from widely scattered sections that the Boston Red Sox have given a total of $441,000 to six untired youngsters in recent weeks last night drew a "no comment" retort from General Manager Joe Cronin.

"The Red Sox never discuss such matters," Cronin added. It had been announced in Pomona, Calif., that Red Sox scouts Ted McGrew and Tom Downey had signed Marty Keough, an 18-year-old schoolboy sensation, for a $100,000 bonus.

Shortly after word came from St. Louis that the Red Sox had given Frank Baumann, an 18-year-old southpaw pitcher, a reported $90,000 for signing.

Two Oregon youngsters, Edward Urness, a pitcher from the Dalles, and Jerry Zimmerman, a catcher from Milwaukee in the Portland district, had been signed to bonus contracts for $86,000 and $65,000 respectively.

And $50,000 bonus offers were reported to have lured two college catchers, Larry Isbell of Baylor and Haywood Sullivan of the University of Florida, into the Red Sox farm system.

A Pomona report said McGrew had signed the Red Sox bid higher for young Keough than the Pittsburgh Pirates did for Paul Pettit, who is said to have received $100,000 for signing two years ago.

Class A Champs Here On Sunday

The Iron Mountain Liberty Loans, Upper Peninsula softball champions, clash with the local Harnischfeger Sunday night at Memorial Field at 8:45 in a replay of last year's Class A finals at Iron Mountain. White Birch will meet Power and Light in the preliminary at 7:15.

The visiting Loans have practically the same club that waded through the tough Class A division of last season's regional tournament. Although they defeated Harnischfeger in the final game of the tourney, they dropped to 1 to 1 eight-inning contest to the Harnies in the state tournament at Flint. Their other defeat downstate was a 2 to 0 decision to Alma, the team that won the state championship.

The Iron Mountain nine is currently leading their city league with a record of six wins and one loss. Their only defeat was a 4 to 3, nine-inning affair against Hosking-Harvey, last year's Class B champs. The Loans evened things up with Hosking-Harvey by copping a 7 to 6 decision in a return game.

The visitors feature steady pitching by Ralph "Cobby" Izzo and George Rapaich, backed up by a strong inner defense with Leo Paoli, the key man, playing shortstop. The outfield coverage is more than adequate with Tom Berdinner in left field, Ernest Polkinghorne in center, and Don Burby in right.

The remainder of the team is composed of Granville Vaness at first base, Bob Rice at second, and Carmen Izzo at third. Their catcher is colorful Joe Menghini whose batting is something to see.

Regardless of the speed of the pitcher, Menghini starts his stance in the rear end of the batter's box and then runs up to the front end to hit the ball. He did it last year against Steve Vugrin and John Pierpon and he will probably do it Sunday night against anybody the Harnies use on the mound.

The doubleheader is a benefit affair and all proceeds will go to the Escanaba Softball Association to provide adequate facilities for the Upper Peninsula Class A finals which will be played here in August.

House Democrats And Republicans Tangle In Benefit Game Tonight

WASHINGTON — (P) — The Democrats and the Republicans go to bat with each other tonight—at baseball, for a change.

Two teams made up of House members will renew a 40-year-old rivalry in Griffith Stadium at 8 p. m. (EST). The game is sponsored by the Washington Evening Star for the benefit of underprivileged children.

Naturally, there are political overtones.

"We're going to be the home team tonight," said Rep. C. W. (Runt) Bishop of Illinois, captain of the Republicans. "That's preparation for next November."

Said the Democrats' captain, Rep. A. S. Herlong of Florida: "We'll take care of the Republicans in traditional fashion."

Clem Koshorek, rookie infielder for the Pittsburgh Pirates, is the smallest player in the majors. He is five feet five and weighs 165 pounds.

Feeble Tigers Hope For Easy Pickings Against Athletics

By HARRY STAPLER

DETROIT — (P) — The Detroit Tigers, feeble when shorn of their home run bats, start a four game series against the Philadelphia Athletics tonight. And manager Red Rolfe knows this series could be the turning point.

The Tigers need a sustained winning streak to stir their confidence (Rolfe thinks he has a talented enough club to climb well out of last place).

Humbled By Yanks And in seventh place Philadelphia the Tigers face the easiest pickings they've seen in two weeks. (They ran into no easy pickings yesterday—the first place New York Yankees slapped them down 8-0).

Moreover the Tigers probably won't have to face Bobby Shantz, the A's ace lefthander, in this series. He's beaten them in two of the A's four victories over the Tiger, who have whipped the A's twice.

Shantz won his 12th victory of the season yesterday from Chicago to account for more than half of the A's total wins. His turn to pitch probably won't come up during the Tiger series.

Virgil Trucks will probably start against the A's Harry Byrd tonight. Trucks hasn't compiled a game since he pitched a no-hitter May 15. His record is 2-7.

The Tigers had slapped 11 home runs in five previous games until they ran into Allie Reynolds, pitching yesterday. He held them to seven hits, struck out eight, walked five, and allowed two runners to reach third in pitching his third 1952 shutout.

The Yankees took over the home run slugging yesterday. Yogi Berra, who hit 9 of his 27 homers last year and 6 of his 12 this year off Tiger pitching, smashed two. Hank Bauer hit one.

Berra's first came in the third inning when he led off against losing pitcher Ted Gray. He hit the second off Marlin Stuart in the sixth inning after Joe Collins singled.

Gray Is Wild Bauer smashed his off Stuart in the fourth inning following another single by Collins. It was Bauer's eighth of the year.

The Yanks scored twice in the first with the help of Gray's wildness, a single by Bauer and Berra's infield grounder. The grounder drove in one run and Gray's walk to Billy Martin with the bases loaded forced in another run.

Fast Action Assured In Welterweight Bout

NEW YORK — (P) — Rough and ready Vinnie Martinez, Paterson, N. J., slugger, meets Sammy Giuliana, Stamford, Conn., brawler, in a Madison Square Garden 10-rounder tonight.

It may not last long, but as long as it goes the action should be fast and furious between these "comers" in the welter division.

Bears To Play At Perronville

The Escanaba Bears will play at Perronville Sunday in a Tri-County League game and manager Jack Beck has nominated his young twirler, Jack Chriske, for mound duty.

Beck announced his probable starting lineup as follows: Chriske pitching, Nyquist catching; Kleinman first base, Kutches second base, Gunderman shortstop, Martinac third base, Tip Larmay, Dick Whitney and Ed Linquist in the outfield. The squad will meet at Ferguson's station, corner Ludington and 14th St., at one o'clock Sunday.

Other league games scheduled Sunday follow:

Hermansville at Daggett
Bark River at Wilton
Wallace at Felch

Foster City at Stephenson
Stephenson, leading the league, continued its victory march in a makeup game with Hermansville under the lights at Stephenson last night, 8 to 4.

Revall of Stephenson got four hits in five trips to the plate and LaCosse and Szabo each hit triples.

Brooklyn Pitcher Faces Only 28 Men To Beat Cubs, 5-0

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The boys who know baseball best have been saying for some time that when Carl Erskine learned to control the ball consistently he would be a great pitcher.

The 25-year old Brooklyn right hander from Anderson, Ind., apparently has learned that lesson. If he hasn't there were a lot of people, including the Chicago Cubs, badly fooled yesterday as he faced only 28 men while holding the Bruins hitless for a 5-0 Dodger victory.

And the only thing that kept him from pitching the first perfect game since Charley Robertson of the Chicago White Sox retired 27 Detroit Tigers in 1922 was a walk to opposing pitcher Willie Ramsdell in the third inning.

White Sox Split
"The only man who couldn't have hit the ball out of the park if I'd teed it up for him," said the slim Dodger hurler.

Ramsdell, who relieved Warren Hacker in the second after the league leaders had scored four runs, has made only one hit in 16 times at bat this season.

"It was going to rain any minute," Carl explained. "I was trying to hurry it up. I threw four fast balls in a hurry and just couldn't get them over."

Sure enough, rain started falling a few minutes later and the game was held up for 45 minutes. But Erskine came back even stronger.

Erskine's feat high-lighted a day of top flight pitching performances.

Philadelphia's pint-sized Bobby Shantz racked up his 11th successive victory and his 12th of the season as the Athletics divided a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox, winning 4-1 and losing 5-4.

Allie Reynolds, the big New York Yankee right hander who shuns help from relief pitchers, hurled his third shutout of the year and his 15th consecutive complete game in blanking the Detroit Tigers, 8-0.

Browns Shut Out
Ivan Delock, whose regular chore with the Boston Red Sox is relief pitching, held the St. Louis Browns to five scattered hits to record his third victory, 2-0.

Little Murry Dickson of the Pittsburgh Pirates also twirled five-hit ball as the cellar-dwelling Buccs defeated the New York Giants 8-1 in an argument-studded game played under protest after the third inning. The defeat dropped the Giants five games back of the Dodgers.

Hank Edwards blasted relief pitcher Sheldon Jones for a three-run homer in the ninth to give the Cincinnati Reds a 7-4 arc-light victory over the Boston Braves. In another night contest the St. Louis Cardinals bunched five tallies in the sixth for a 6-4 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies. Doubles by Hal Rice and Red Schoendienst and Cloyd Boyer's triple were the big blows.

Washington shoved Cleveland deeper into fourth place with a 6-3 victory.

Erskine struck out just one Cub but only five balls were hit to the outfield. Third baseman Bobby Morgan came up with two great stops and throws. Shortstop Peeewe Reese and second baseman Jackie Robinson also sparked. And Erskine himself figured in six of the putouts. Carl Furillo backed up against the right field wall to gather in two of the balls hit to the outfield. One was by Ransom Jackson in the fifth and the other by Hank Sauer in the seventh.

Michigan State Guard Signs With Packers

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(AP)—The Green Bay Packers of the National Football League have signed Frank Kapral, Michigan State guard.

hitless since Fred Toney of Cincinnati did it in 1917. The other 1952 no-hitter was turned in by Detroit's Virgil Trucks against Washington on May 15.

The Pirates backed up Dickson's pitching with an attack good for five runs in a hectic third inning. The rhubarb started when Dick Groat made his first major league hit. The single sent two runs home but an argument arose over whether outfielder George Metkovich was safe or out.

Plate Umpire Babe Pinelli first called Metkovich out, then safe. The umpire claimed he changed his ruling when appraised by third base umpire Dusty Boggess that catcher Wes Westrum had dropped the throw from the outfield, which Pinelli did not see.

Big AAU Event At Long Beach

By BOB MYERS
LONG BEACH, Calif.—(AP)—Aiming at championships and a place in the Olympic games picture, athletes from all sections of the country swing into the opening program of the National A. A. U. track and field meet tonight.

The scene is the Memorial stadium, with nine events on the schedule tonight, and the windup tomorrow afternoon with 12 events on the bill.

Track events start at 8 p. m. (10 p. m. EST) with trial heats. Starts at 4 p. m.

But the final final race of the evening, the 3,000-meter walk, is set for 8:50 p. m. (10:50 p. m. EST). The final race, the 10,000-meter run, is set for 10:30 p. m. (12:30 a. m. EST).

The show starts at 2 p. m. (4 p. m. EST) tomorrow and is scheduled to end with the 5,000-meter run at 4:20 p. m. (6:20 p. m. EST). Host for the meet for the first time, Long Beach hopes to see the stadium's 12,000 seats occupied and more in the temporary stands constructed for the occasion.

Track events tonight feature the 100-meter dash, the 400-meter dash and 400-meter hurdles.

The field event finals are topped by the shotput, with the broadjump, javelin and 16-pound hammer throw vying for attention.

There may be great fireworks in the 400-meter dash. The favorite is the world's best, three-time champion George Rhoden of Morgan State. But running against him will be two threats, veteran Mal Whitfield of the Air Force and Johnny Barnes of Occidental.

More Battles Friday
Veteran Fred Wilt, the FBI man from the NYAC, is the general choice in the 10,000 meters, and for the 5,000 meters tomorrow if he goes. Curtis Stone, 1951 AAU champion, is the No. 1 challenger.

The first six places in the A. A. U., excluding foreigners and qualifiers in the N. C. A. A., last week, will be eligible for the Olympic trials in Los Angeles next weekend.

Tomorrow more battles are on tap.

There'll be the 200-meter dash, featuring Jim Ford of Drake, Ole Watson, San Francisco U., and others; the 110-meter hurdles between Jack Davis, USC; Craig Dixon and Dick Attlesley, L. A. A. C.; Harrison Oillard, unattached; Billy Apderson, Army, and Dal Joe Walker, SMU; the 800-meter runs, with Whitfield, Bob McMillen of Occidental, and others, and the fiery 1,500 meters, with Wes Santee, Kansas; Don Gehrmann, unattached; Warren Druetzler, Army, and Ohio State's Len Truex. It'll be a big A. A. U. weekend.

Written for NEA Service

Question: The bases are loaded, none out, and the batter hits into a double play, shortstop to second to first. The runner on third scores on the play. Does the batter get credit for a run batted in?

Answer: No.
Q. How many of the Brooklyn regulars today are products of the farm system installed by Branch Rickey?

A. Only three—First Baseman Gil Hodges and Outfielders Duke Snider and Carl Furillo. Contrary to popular belief, Pee Wee Reese did not come up through the Dodger farm plan. The great shortstop was purchased from the Red Sox organization.

Q. Who was it that said: "They must be gonna fight this darned war around second base?"

A. Spencer Abbot, dean of minor league managers, said it when the Army inducted his third different starting second baseman in 1942.

Q. Where did the famous phrase "Good field, no hit," originate?

A. It came from a telegram Mike Gonzalez sent John J. McGraw of the Giants in 1924, after scouting Moe Berg, then a shortstop but who later caught in the American League for 14 years.

Newport To Bermuda Race Attracts 59 Stout Sailing Yachts

NEWPORT, R. I.—(AP)—A record fleet of 59 stout sailing yachts assembled here today for tomorrow's start of the 675 nautical mile Newport-Bermuda open ocean race. The previous record was 54.

With 11 foreign flags flying, representing six nations, the contest will have a decided international flavor. Also, it will have a semi-official complexion, with five representatives of the U. S. naval academy, one of the U. S. coast guard academy and one, the British Royal naval sailing association.

Largest is the 73.6 foot Ketch Valkyrie, entered by George F. Ware of Boston; smallest, the 30.6 foot sloop Samuel Pepys, sailed by the Royal Naval sailing association.

Before any craft can cross the starting line, it must satisfy rigid inspection as to seaworthiness and equipment by experts of the cruising club of America, jointly sponsoring the contest with the Royal Bermuda Yacht club.

Dorothy Lahti Is The Bride Of Carl Westerback

Of wide interest her is the wedding of Miss Dorothy Lahti, daughter of Mrs. Inez Lahti and the late Andrew Lahti of Marquette, and Carl J. Westerback of Ironwood which took place June 14 at Messiah Lutheran Church in Marquette. The bridegroom is a member of the teaching staff of the Gladstone public schools.

The Rev. C. L. Lindberg officiated at the 4 p. m. double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James Lahti, wore a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending at a point over the wrists, and a gored skirt with court train. Her fingertip veil edged in Chantilly lace was fastened to a tiara of orange blossoms and myrtle. Her tiara was worn by her mother at her wedding. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli.

Bridal Aids In Pink
The bride's only attendant, Miss Rita Underhill, was gowned in pink organza over taffeta, with matching half-hat and mitts of taffeta. Her bouquet was of white shasta daisies and pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Raymond Gustafson, Iron River, Alfred Lund and Richard Murrely, both of Ironwood, ushered.

The altar flowers were pink and white, snapdragons and carnations, and baskets of bridal wreath decorated the chancel.

During the ceremony Miss Barbara Johnson, niece of the bridegroom, sang "O Perfect Love" and "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," accompanied by Mrs. Milton Johnson, organist, who also played the nuptial music.

The bride's mother wore a navy two-piece dress with matching hat and corsage of pink roses. The mother of the bridegroom chose a lavender print dress and matching hat. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

A reception was held from 6:30 to 9 in the home of the bride's mother and was attended by 200 guests. The centerpiece for the table was a pair of dolls dressed like the bride and maid of honor. Presiding at the table were Mrs. William Lane, sister of the bridegroom, the Misses Mary Jane Caddy and Beverly Phaneuf. After the couple cut their three-tiered cake it was served by Miss Shirley Peterson, cousin of the bride.

Home in Gladstone
The couple left on a trip to Chicago and Rock Island. For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. After their return they will live in Marquette for the summer. In the fall they will reside in Gladstone.

The bride is a graduate of John D. Pierce high school and Northern Michigan College of Education. For the past year she has been teaching in the Marquette schools. The groom also is a graduate of Northern Michigan College of Education.

Gladstone guests at the wedding were Norman Peterson, Mrs. Ole Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Larson, Mrs. E. A. Erickson, Mrs. Thelma Jacobsen, Miss Lois Borna, and Al Vietzke.

Sister Taking Vows Saturday
Sister Mary Mathia, the former Rita Raboy will take her final vows at "Profession Ceremonies" which are being held at 9 on Saturday morning at St. Joseph's Convent, 1501 Layton Blvd., Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Raboy, parents of Sr. Mathia, and their family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Trotter, Escanaba, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blair, Chicago, will be present at the ceremonies.

City Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kegel and son, John, have returned from a two weeks' vacation motor trip during which they visited in South Dakota and Iowa. In Dakota they saw the Black Hills and the famed Mount Rushmore while in Iowa they saw the Grotto of the Redemption at West Bend. Fr. Kegel was particularly enthusiastic about his visit to the Grotto which is designed to tell in silent stone the story of man's fall and of his redemption by Christ. It is the work of a lone pastor who has traveled more than 130,000 miles in every state of the union and many foreign countries collecting stones, ores, minerals, fossils and shells and coral for use in the project.

David Snouwaert has returned to Marquette following a week's visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snouwaert.

C. H. Menard and son John have returned to their home in Edmondton, Canada, following a week's visit at the Paul Snouwaert home and with other relatives in Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Svoke and son, Dennis, left Wednesday evening to return to their home in Ironwood after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Svoke. Albert and Joseph are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. (Jack) Johnson left yesterday to return to their home in Shawano, Wis., after visiting for two weeks with friends in Gladstone and Sault Ste. Marie.

Mrs. Kamel DeYonke left today for Detroit where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Bednarik and son, John Jr. Mrs. Bednarik is the former Sylvia DeYonke.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Christenson and children Raymond, Marylou and Donald of Greenbush, Minn., are spending a few days at the W. C. Johnson and C. H. Murray homes. Mrs. Christenson is a niece of Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Raboy and family are leaving tonight for Milwaukee to attend the "Profession Ceremonies" at St. Joseph Convent, at which their daughter, Sister Mary Mathia will take her final vow.

Lt. Colonel George Cameron and Mrs. Cameron and children are arriving this weekend to visit with his mother, Mrs. Cameron Smith and other relatives. They have been visiting in Albion with her parents. Lt. Colonel Cameron is a chaplain in the USAF and is stationed at Walker Field, Roswell, New Mexico. He is on a 30 day leave.

Wallace John Cameron has arrived from Iowa City, Ia., where he attends Iowa State University, to spend the summer visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cameron. Part of his summer will be spent as a counselor at Camp Botawagama.

Miss Graciela Andrade arrived Thursday evening from Iowa City, Ia., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cameron and son. She will also be a counselor at Camp Botawagama. Miss Andrade is a student at Iowa State University.

Mrs. Earl Marks of Marquette is spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross P. Davis.

Mary R. Scholtz, Albert Tomasi Exchange Vows

HERMANVILLE—Miss Mary Ruth Scholtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scholtz of Hermansville exchanged marriage vows with Albert Tomasi of Norway in a ceremony June 14 at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Powers. The Rev. Franklin C. Dobratz solemnized the double ring service.

Mrs. Nicholas Peterson was organist for the service and she also sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride wore white nylon and lace. Her veil of illusion, edged with lace, was secured by a coronet of rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a purple orchid.

Miss Marlene Dahlvik, the bride's cousin, who was maid of honor, wore a lilac gown with matching headpiece and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Scholtz, a sister of the bride, and Miss Yvonne LaRoche, were in mist green and pink, respectively. Their headpieces were of matching color and they carried white carnations.

John Scholtz was best man and Jack Scholtz and Edward Arnold ushered.

Hobby Becomes His Career On The Stage

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — (AP) — Bill Burns' hobby took up so much of his time he ended up by quitting his advertising job.

Now he has a trained-bird act he puts on in theaters and night-clubs all over the country and on television. He has a troupe of 13 African love birds who do some stunts as mail letters, push baby carriages and crank out a complete washing. Of course, all props are bird-size miniatures.

Burns says there's no substitute for patience in bird training. It takes almost a year to train a bird.
